

PEDIATRIC ONCO-CRITICAL CARE SYMPOSIUM

APRIL | 23-24 | 2019

Location: Marlo Thomas Center for Global Education and Collaboration, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Memphis, TN

Target Audience: Pediatric oncologists and critical care physicians

Description: This two-day symposium brings together national experts to describe current challenges and advances in the field of pediatric onco-critical care and discuss the importance of this emerging specialty. The format includes both large group presentations and small group breakout sessions.

Educational Objectives: After this symposium, healthcare providers will be able to:

1. Determine which latest developments in pediatric onco-critical care are applicable to their practice
2. Plan ways to implement those developments and strategies

Registration:

Registration will open on January 1. Fees for all attendees are as follows:

Until February 15: $75.00

After February 15: $100.00

Registration will close on April 1, 2019, or when the conference reaches capacity.

Exceptions:

Clinical fellows may register for free (note: documentation confirming your status will be required at check-in).

If you are a healthcare provider in a low- or middle-income country, free registration is also available. Please contact Asya Agulnik, MD, from our Global Critical Care Program at asya.agulnik@stjude.org for more information.

Register at www.stjude.org/POCCS.

Accreditation:

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and Le Bonheur Children's Hospital/University of Tennessee Health Science Center. St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital designates this live activity for a maximum of 15 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
